Today, the learned State Counsel has filed detailed parawise reply in which it has been mentioned that criminal case agaisnt Asad Ali S/o Wajid Ali Shaikh, the present petitioner, has been registered in which challan has also been submitted before the concerned Court.

Be that as it may, under the garb of investigation, the official respondents cannot take excessive measures against the petitioner including against his running business of restaurant. The police officials/respondents are required to investigate the case in a due diligent manner, but at the same time the petitioner if doing a lawful business, which is his one of the fundamental rights under the Constitution of Pakistan, cannot be coerced to close the same. The police officials/respondents in the circumstances should conduct themselves strictly in accordance with law and shall not harass the petitioner. With these observations, instant constitutional petition stands disposed of with a note of caution that if official respondents will attempt to take undue advantage of their position then it will be construed as a violation of this order.
