2. For hearing of M.A-1749 of 2016.

None present for the petitioner, which was the case on the last many dates also where on account of the absence from the petitioner's side operation of the interim order was vacated. This constitutional petition is filed challenging the judgment and decree passed by Family Court for which no plausible constitutional interference is warranted. It seems that very purpose of filing this petition is to misuse the process of law and to usurp the interests of respondent No.4 arising out of the judgment and decree impugned which under no circumstances can be permitted by filing a constitutional petition. The petition is accordingly dismissed on account of non-prosecution as well as having no merits, alongwith the listed application.
