Mr.Muhammad Safdar, Advocate for the Plaintiff.

Ms.Arjumand Khan, Advocate for Defendant

This is a suit for permanent injunction and damages with the prayer that the defendants be restrained from dispossessing, interference, disconnecting amenities, utilities or any kind of creating the hindrance in the smooth business activities of plaintiff in the office premises No.362 3rd Floor, Situated on Hotel Metropole Limited, Club Road, Karachi. The defendant has filed written statement and counter affidavit. In paragraph 10 of the written statement the defendant stated that they never tried to eject the plaintiff from the demised premises and in counter affidavit of injunction application they further reiterated that the defendant neither tried to dispossess the plaintiff nor they have disconnected the utilities. Learned counsel for the defendant submits that no action shall be taken against the plaintiff without due process of law and neither they have disconnected the utilities nor they will do so in future. On this statement, Counsel for the plaintiff is satisfied. In the above terms the suit is disposed of along with pending application.
