Learned for the applicant/accused has placed on record a photostat copy of an agreement, according to which, an agreement was entered between the applicant and the complainant on 05.12.2016 and as per the said agreement, applicant/accused has given a substantial amount to the complainant and remaining amount would be given as agreed between the parties. He therefore prays that in view of the above agreement entered between the parties, the interim pre-arrest bail granted to the applicant/accused vide order dated 01.08.2016 may be confirmed.

Learned counsel for the complainant states that though the complainant has lodged FIR No.159/2016 registered under sections 420, 406, 506-B and 34 PPC at Police Station New Town against the applicant / accused but since the accused has returned a considerable amount to him and as per aforesaid agreement has also promised to return the remaining amount, therefore, he has no objection for confirmation of bail.

Learned A.P.G. states that in view of the no objection given by the learned counsel for the complainant interim pre-arrest bail granted to the applicant/accused vide order dated 01.08.2016 may be confirmed.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case and on the basis of no objection given by the learned counsel for the applicant/accused as well as by the learned A.P.G, interim pre-arrest bail granted to the applicant/accused vide order dated 01.08.2016 is hereby confirmed. However order of confirmation of bail passed today would not prejudice the case of either party which is pending before the trial Court.

Instant Criminal Bail is disposed of.
