Mr. Nadeem Ahmed, advocate for the petitioner
Mr. Khilji Bilal, Assistant Attorney General

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that instant petition can be disposed of in terms of earlier orders already passed by this Court in number of petitions involving similar controversy, wherein, respondents have been restrained from enforcing the recovery of impugned demand, which is subject matter of appeal pending before Commissioner (Appeals-III), Karachi till its final decision, and, in case of any adverse order, if passed by Commissioner (Appeals), Karachi, respondents have been further restrained from enforcing recovery of the impugned demand for another period of seven days from the date of receipt of such appellate order to enable the petitioner to seek further remedy in accordance with law.

Learned counsel for the respondents could not controvert such factual position.

Accordingly, instant petition is being disposed of with the directions to the respondents not to enforce the recovery of impugned demand, which is subject matter of the appeal before the Commissioner Inland Revenue (Appeals-III), Karachi, till its final decision.

It is expected that the Commissioner Inland Revenue (Appeals-III), Karachi, may decide the appeal of the petitioner, preferably within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of this order, which shall be communicated to the concerned Commissioner by the petitioner within a week. In case of any adverse order, if passed by the Commissioner Inland Revenue (Appeals-III), Karachi, against the petitioner in the instant case, the respondents may not enforce the recovery of the impugned demand for another period of seven days from the date of receipt of such appellate order to enable the petitioner to seek further remedy in accordance with law.

The petition stands disposed of in the above terms along with the listed application.
