Ms. Masooda Siraj, advocate for the appellant
Mr. Abdul Qayyum Abbasi, advocate for the respondent No.1
Mr. Mukhtar Ahmed, advocate for the respondent No.2

-----

We have heard all the learned Counsel at some length and perused the record. It is noted that vide order dated 12.12.2012 certain directions were issued to the Collector of Customs (Appraisement) which admittedly have not been complied with, however a review against the said order is pending adjudication. In our view the order dated 17.3.2016 impugned in the instant appeal is nothing but an offshoot of the order dated 12.12.2012 and it cannot be presumed that the appellant is aggrieved against the said order.

We therefore, in the circumstances, direct the appellant to pursue the review application which is pending before the learned single Judge in accordance with law however, it is expected that the learned single Judge before disposing of the review application would grant opportunity of hearing to all the parties and thereafter decide the application within a shortest possible time.

With these directions the instant High Court Appeal stands disposed of along with the listed applications.
