3. For orders on CMA No.32185/2021.

17.12.2021

Mr. Shahzad Mehmood, advocate for the petitioner.

1. Urgency granted.
2. Exemption granted subject to all just exceptions.

3&4. Per learned counsel, the petitioner is an employee of the FIA and criminal proceedings are pending there against in pursuance of several FIRs. The petitioner wishes to travel abroad and therefore has approached this court to sanction such travel.

At the very onset, learned counsel was confronted with respect to the maintainability hereof, inter alia, as there is no order of denial of such permission impugned before us; the custody of the petitioner, in the respective criminal proceedings, is to be regulated by the respective trial courts and in such regard how direct recourse to this court may be sanctioned; and in the admitted present of similar application/s before the learned trial court/s, how the present parallel proceedings can be entertained.

Learned counsel was unable to assist us that any law in so far as the maintainability is concerned and rested his arguments on the assertion that the relevant application/s before the trial court/s have not been decided as of date.

We are of the considered view that our queries with regard to the maintainability, as particularized supra, has not been satisfied by the learned counsel and pursuant thereto we find the present petition to be mis-conceived and/or in the very least premature. In view of foregoing, the present petition, and listed application, is hereby dismissed in limine.
