2. For hearing of case

15.05.2024

Mr. Habib-ur-Rehman Jiskani, advocate for the appellant
Ms. Seema Zaidi, Addl. PG for the State

It is stated by learned counsel that appellants Hussain Raza and Shoaib were tried separately for committing the offence of robbery and police encounter and after the conclusion of the trial, they were also convicted and sentenced separately by separate judgment, which they impugned before this court by preferring a single appeal individually; they have been acquitted by this court in a case relating to robbery and they are at the verge of completion of their sentence in a case relating to police encounter, therefore, under instructions, he does not press their appeals relating to the police encounter case. Learned Addl. PG for the State has recorded no objection to disposal of the appeals of the appellant relating to the police encounter as not pressed. Order accordingly.
