Mr. Irshad Ali R. Chandio, advocate for the applicant.

Mr. Ali Anwar Kandhro, Addl. P.G.

O R D E R.

AMJAD ALI SAHITO-J.:- Through this bail application, applicant Zafar Ali is seeking post arrest bail in Crime No.177 of 2024 of P.S market under Sections 419, 386 PPC R/S Section 6 (2) (K) ATA 1997, after dismissal of his bail plea by learned Trial Court vide impugned order dated 17.3.2025.

Details and particulars of the FIR are already available in the memo of instant application, same can be gathered from the copy of FIR attached with the application, hence need not reproduce the same hereunder.

Heard learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned D.P.G and perused the material brought on record.

Per learned counsel, bail plea moved on behalf of the applicant was already dismissed on merit and thereafter he repeated application on fresh ground of affidavits filed by complainant and victim wherein they extended no objection for grant of bail which was not considered by trial Court and again his bail has been declined.

Perusal of record reflects that name of applicant appears in the FIR with specific role that he alongwith co-accused appeared at tire shop of Faraz Ahmed and demanded extortion/Bhatta of Rs.5000/- and due to fear Faraz Tunio gave said amount to Zafar Chandio. Subsequently complainant registered the FIR.

So far the plea raised by the learned counsel for the applicant that complainant and victim has exonerated applicant from commission of offence by filing affidavits, this is not a compoundable offence, as such affidavits can not be considered at bail stage. On our tentative view, there appears sufficient material available on record to connect the applicant with the commission of offence. Resultantly instant bail application is dismissed.

Needless to say, observations made herein above are tentative in nature and would not prejudice the case of either side while deciding fate of the case by trial Court.
