1. For hearing of main case.

13.02.2025

One Shahid Hussain, claiming himself to be nephew of the Applicant, is present and submits that Counsel for the Applicant could not reach the Court. Comments have been filed by the concerned Court, available on record. It appears that execution, arising from the judgment and decree passed in 2012, is still pending. From perusal of diary sheet, it appears that a number of hearings having been taken place, however, the fruits of the decree has not been handed out to the Decree Holder. He agitates that matter has been taken up in cyclostyle manner, which seemingly misuse of process of law.

In such circumstances, instant Civil Transfer Application stands disposed of with direction to learned District and Sessions Judge concerned to ensure the execution of the decree, either through his own Court or through some other competent Court, and to submit a compliance report within 30 days without fail with Additional Registrar of this Court.
