ORDER

SHAMSUDDIN ABBASI, J.- Through instant criminal bail application, applicants/accused Asghar Ali, Mehoob Ali and Manzoor Ahmed, seek interim pre-arrest bail in Crime No. 179/2024 of P.S. Staurt Ganj for the offence U/s 302, 452, 148, 149, 337-A(i), 337-F(i) P.P.C, after rejection of their bail plea by learned trial court vide order dated 17.03.2025.

2. At the very outset, learned counsel for the applicants submits that during pendency of this application, the parties have settled their dispute outside the court and they have filed proper applications U/S 345(2) and 345(6) Cr.P.C before the trial court and in compliance of compromise applications, learned trial court recorded the statements of legal heirs of deceased. Learned counsel for the applicants has produced certified copies of depositions as well as compromise applications.

3. Today the complainant and legal heir Nazar Muhammad are present in person and verified the contents of their affidavits as well as compromise arrived at between the parties.

4. Learned D.P.G. concedes for grant of pre-arrest bail on the ground that the alleged offence is compoundable and parties have settled their dispute outside the court.

5. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, complainant, learned D.P.G and perused the material available on the record with their able assistance.

6. Admittedly the alleged offence is compoundable and parties have settled their dispute outside the court. They have filed proper applications before the learned trial court and learned trial court has also recorded the statements of legal heirs of deceased. In my humble view the bail in compoundable offence is a good ground for grant of bail. Reliance is placed on the record on a case reported 2003 MLD 1665 (Muhammad Rind and 3 others v/s. The State), 2019 MLD 125 (Sher Awan and another v/s. The State).

7. In view of above position, instant bail application is allowed. Interim pre-arrest bail already granted to the applicants vide order dated 02.05.2025 is confirmed on same terms and conditions.
