Learned Law Officers file statements of respondents No.2 to 5 along with a copy of statement of petitioner No.1 recorded by I.O today, taken on record and copies whereof are provided to counsel for the petitioners.

Investigating Officer, P.S, Mirwah is present and submits that he has recorded the statement of petitioner No.1 who has reiterated her marriage with petitioner No.2 and stated that FIR was registered with false facts; therefore, he will file a report before concerned Magistrate disposing of the case under C-class.

After such statement, the counsel for petitioners seeks disposal of this petition with further prayer that directions may be issued for protection.

Under the above circumstances, the I.O is directed to submit report, as suggested by him within 15 days before the Court having jurisdiction. Official respondents are directed to provide protection to the petitioners, as and when required. The petition along with listed application(s) is disposed of in the above terms.
