None present for the Petitioner nor any intimation is received. However, upon perusal of the record, it transpires that the disability certificate submitted by the Petitioner, available at page 11 of the case file, was issued in the year 2022. It is evident that the said certificate is not in conformity with the recent legislative amendments.

In view of the foregoing, the instant Constitutional Petition stands dismissed. Nevertheless, the Petitioner is at liberty to obtain a fresh disability certificate from the competent Committee constituted under the Sindh Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2018, vide Amendment of 2019 and thereafter approach the respondents for redressal of his grievance.
