AMJAD ALI SAHITO, J:- Through this Criminal Transfer Application, the applicants Muhammad Ibrahim and Liaquat Ali seek transfer of Sessions Case No. 484 of 2002 (re-the State Versus Allahando and others) from the Court of 4th Addl. Sessions Judge, Larkana to any other Court of District Larkana on the ground that Presiding Officer of the learned trial Court is disciple of the complainant party.

2. On the other hand, Mr. Ahsan Ahmad Quraishi, Advocate files Vakalatnama on behalf of the respondent No.2/complainant and states that infact in earlier proceedings, the accused was convicted by the learned trial Court / 4th Addl. Sessions Judge, Larkana in the year 2011 and being aggrieved, the accused party filed an appeal before this Court, wherein after hearing the parties, the case was remanded back to the 4th Addl. Sessions judge, Larkana for recording fresh statement of the accused person with further directions to pass the judgment in accordance with law within one month.

3. Per learned counsel for the respondent/complainant, infact the statement of accused under Section 342 Cr.P.C has been recorded and now the case is fixed for final arguments and the applicant has filed an application in order to avoid the further proceedings and is making delaying tactics in the case.

4. Learned Deputy P.G, Sindh supports the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the respondent/complainant.

5. Heard arguments of the parties and perused the material available on record.

6. During Court proceedings when it was inquired from the learned counsel for the applicants that what is the caste of the applicant, he submits that they are by caste 'Kalhoro', whereas, the complainant is by caste 'Shah' and learned Presiding Officer is by caste 'Abro'. Therefore, having no concern with each other, no case for transfer of the case is made out. Resultantly, instant Criminal Transfer Application is dismissed.
