Mr. Shoukat Ali Makwal, Advocate for petitioner.

1. Urgency is granted.

2to5. Through this petition, the petitioner seeks quashment of the proceedings arising from FIR No.61 of 2025, registered at P.S, Bozdar Wada-Khairpur under section 9(1)(c) of the Sindh Control of Narcotics Substance Act, 2024.

It appears that the petitioner is not nominated in the FIR in question. The principle of law is well-settled that a person, who is neither an accused nor an aggrieved party in the case, cannot invoke the constitutional jurisdiction of this Court to seek relief in criminal proceedings. Even otherwise, only on the basis that nominated accused is missing, the proceedings cannot be quashed.

Further, Mr. Mansoor Ahmed Shaikh, D.P.G, present in Court in other matters, was asked to verify status of the above FIR, who after confirms that interim Challan has been submitted and the case is pending before the trial Court.

In these circumstances, the petition is found to be misconceived, not maintainable, and is accordingly dismissed in limine along with listed application(s).
