 Mr. Kafeel Ahmed Abbasi, Additional Advocate General Sindh
 Respondent No.2, Roop Kumar along his father Pirshotam Das

ORDER

Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J: Petitioner claims to be a law-abiding and tax payer citizen of Pakistan and has filed this petition essentially against respondent No.2 (Roop Kumar), a private person, seeking direction to him to deposit entire amount of his scholarship, which according to the petitioner, he obtained through fraud from Endowment Fund and direction to respondent No.1 (Secretary, College Education) to initiate legal proceedings against him.

2. His case is that parents of respondent No.2, themselves doctors are influential persons, and at their instance respondent No.2 was given scholarship by the Endowment Fund. Along-with petition, however, he has not annexed any documentary record to substantiate these allegations, except for an order dated 11.02.2020 passed by the learned Single of this Court in CP No.D-2116/2018.

3. We have heard counsel for the petitioner, and when confronted to him to establish that respondent No.2 was given scholarship illegally, he has no answer. It is clear that this petition is based on vague allegations without any supporting proof and therefore appears to be not maintainable. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed along with pending application(s)

This petition is disposed of in above terms along with pending applications.
