~~~~~

Statements filed on behalf of respondents No.4 to 11 are taken on record. SHO, P.S Amrot Sharif (who is the relevant officer) submits that he alongwith petitioner visited the place/ houses of the private respondents, pointed out by the petitioner for recovery of alleged detainee Mst. Qaim Khatoon, the wife of petitioner, where we found that none of the private respondents was present there and their residences were not in existence and their present whereabouts could not be learnt. He further submits that the respondents No.15 is brother of petitioner, whereas respondents No.12 to 14 are his nephews, while respondent No.16 is his sister-in-law.

Today, neither petitioner nor his counsel is in attendance and since the concerned police so also the petitioner do not known present whereabouts of the alleged private respondents and the alleged detainee, therefore, the instant petition is dismissed leaving the petitioner at liberty to file fresh petition, on knowing whereabouts of the private respondents and the alleged detainee.
