Petitioner is present in person but her counsel called absent without intimation. In response to the notice, respondent No.1 files statement dated 10.03.2017 contending therein that sons of the petitioner namely Akber, Fazal Mohammad, Dad Mohammad and Shahnawaz are absconders in Crime No.50/1995 U/S 302 PPC and Crime No.103/2000 of P.S Taluka and have been declared proclaimed offender by the competent Court of law. Learned Asstt: A.G after filing of the statement by respondent No.1 states that the purpose of petition has been achieved and as far as harassment is concerned, the official respondents are being directed not to harass the petitioner and her family and act strictly in accordance with law.

Since the sons of the petitioner, as reported, are absconders and it seems there is a tribal dispute between the parties viz. the petitioner and private respondents therefore, as far as her prayer to the extent of clause 'C' is concerned, the same is not maintainable for which she is at liberty to approach the concerned Court in accordance with law whereas as far as the prayer clause A, B and D are concerned, the same are granted with direction to the official respondents to provide legal protection to the petitioner and her family and not to harass the petitioner and her family.

In view of above, the petitioner is also satisfied and seeks disposal of the petition however, she prays that copy of this order be sent to
