2. For orders on M.A No. 2083/2017 (C/ A)

27.10.2017

Mr. Mohammad Afzal Jagirani, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Ali Raza Pathan, State counsel.

1. Urgency application granted.
2. The petition was disposed of on 27.02.2017 thereby directing the official respondents not to cause harassment to the petitioner. Through instant application, the petitioner has claimed that despite above order, the private respondents are trying to dispossess him from the disputed land through Respondent No.1 and the F.I.R No. 74/2016 lodged by Respondent No.10 against the petitioner, in which he was on bail and subsequently stands acquitted. Now the petitioner alleges that private respondents are trying to dispossess him from the land in question. Since no offence in terms of defiance of Court order has been made out however disputed question of fact has been raised which cannot be decided by this Court in its writ jurisdiction. Accordingly, instant application M.A No. 2083/2017 being devoid of merit is dismissed. The petitioner is at liberty to avail proper remedy before the appropriate forum in accordance with law.
