HIGH COURT OF SINDH, CIRCUIT COURT HYDERABAD
C.P No.S-387 of 2024

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE(S)
------	----------------------------------

For hearing of M.A no.1328/2024 (Restoration)

06.11.2025

None present on behalf of the petitioner. No intimation has been received. The same was the case on the last two dates of hearing, viz. 22.08.2025 and 20.10.2025. The matter was listed today for hearing of the restoration application. The petitioner-applicant appears to have lost interest in the restoration of the petition. Without prejudice to the foregoing, even otherwise, on merits, the instant petition is liable to be dismissed. This opinion is based on the perusal of the available record. It appears that the petitioner-father, Abdul Malik, has impugned the judgment dated 19.11.2021, passed by the learned Additional District Judge, Hala in Family Appeal No.14 of 2021, whereby the decree of the learned Family Judge-II, Saeedabad was upheld. The said decree directed the petitioner to pay maintenance to each minor child at the rate of Rs.5,000/- per month. The quantum of maintenance of Rs.5000/- was determined after due consideration of the petitioner’s financial capacity, as the amount claimed by the Respondent-mother was, in fact, reduced from Rs.10,000/- to Rs.5,000/- per child. Given prevailing inflation and the rising cost of living, the maintenance of Rs.5000/- per month, per child appears to be reasonable and does not warrant interference.

Given the above reasons, this petition even if the petition was restored is/was also liable to have been dismissed on this score too. Be that as it may in the present circumstances, the restoration application is dismissed for non-prosecution for the above reasons.
