Cr. B.A. No.2672 of 2025
(Hafeez Ahmed vs. The State)

Present:

Mr. Justice Syed Fiaz-ul-Hassan Shah

For hearing of bail application

Date of hearing

& order

18.11.2025

Mr. Tanveer Shah, advocate for applicant

Mr. Qamaruddin Nohari, DPG

ORDER

Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J:- It is alleged that 560 grams of charas was recovered from the applicant on 22.07.2025 by a police team of Police Station Mehmoodabad, Karachi, headed by SIP Nadeem Baloch, when the applicant was found present at the place of incident, i.e., Street No. 7, Opposite U.S. Office, Akhtar Colony, Karachi.

2. Learned counsel for applicant submits that the quantity of charas recovered from the applicant is relatively small, hence, he is entitled to bail. However, the criminal record of the applicant shows that he is already involved in three identical cases, and in those identical cases, he was granted bail but he did not make his best and he has again indulged in the narcotic business. We, therefore, do not find any ground grant of concession of bail to the applicant. Accordingly, this bail application is dismissed.

3. Bail application stands disposed of in the above terms. The observations made hereinabove are tentative in nature and would not prejudice case of either party at trial.
