Mr. Muhammad Afzal Jagirani, advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Jagirani, learned counsel submits that the petitioners are being harassed unnecessarily by the SHO PS Sijawal Junejo at the behest of Muhammad Uris, respondent No.3, due to the doings of petitioner No.1 Dur Muhamamd's son Niaz Hussain. Mr. Jagirani admits that Niaz Hussain is a person of dubious character and he was associating with bad people and as a consequence his father has already denounced him through publication of a notice in the local press.

Be that as it may, the official respondents in particular SHO PS Sijawal Junejo, are directed to at all times act in accordance with law, not become party to any dispute which the petitioner may have with Muhammad Uris and shall ensure that the family members of Niaz Hussain are not held liable for the misdoings of their son Niaz Hussain. This order, however, does not prohibit the police in any manner to act in accordance with law, if any of Niaz's relatives themselves are required by the police. Mr. Jagirani, Learned counsel is satisfied with such directions and he does not wish to press further. Order accordingly. Petition stands disposed of along with listed applications.
