Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

It has come on record that the trial of the case is proceeding and evidence is yet to be recorded. The respondents/ accused are regularly appearing before the learned trial Court to face their trial. It is settled law that once a person is granted bail on merit, its cancellation requires extra ordinarily circumstances, which may include any sort of severe threat by the accused side to the complainant party. However, no such allegation or ground has been agitated before this Court. No case for cancelation of bail is made out; hence instant Criminal Misc. Application is hereby dismissed. However, learned trial Court is directed to conclude the trial within a period of two months.
