None is present on behalf of the petitioner, nor has any intimation been received. The petitioner seeks to restrain the police officials from causing any harassment and also seeks protection. However, it is noted that an adequate, efficacious, and alternate remedy is available under Sections 22-A and 22-B of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

In view of the foregoing, the instant constitutional petition, which seeks to invoke the jurisdiction of this Court directly without first approaching the appropriate statutory forum, is hereby dismissed in limine. This approach is fully consistent with the guidance provided by the Honourable Division Bench in Abdul Hameed and another v. Province of Sindh and others (PLD 2019 Sindh 168), and is further in line with the decision of this Court in C.P. No. S-482/2025, Re: Manzoor Ali v. Province of Sindh and others, where similar issues were considered, and the constitutional petitions were dismissed on the ground of the availability of an efficacious statutory remedy.
