This petition already been disposed of in terms of the order dated 24.02.2025.

Today, the police functionaries are present and have submitted that they are proceeding in accordance with the Police Rules, 1934, for tracing the absconding accused. In view thereof, it is the prerogative of the police to follow the procedure prescribed under the law and to take necessary steps for the arrest of the accused.

Consequently, the listed application is hereby dismissed. The police are under an obligation to submit their progress report before the learned trial Court in accordance with the law. The petitioner, if so advised, may also approach the learned trial Court regarding the arrest of the accused and for seeking further appropriate directions.
