13.02.2026

M/s Ghulam Hyder Daudpoto and Faraz Khan, Advocates for the Petitioner

Mr. Ali Raza Kalwar, Advocate for Respondents 7, 8, and 9

ORDER

Through this petition, the petitioner seeks directions on the ground that the official respondents are allegedly harassing him and that he and his family members are under threats; hence, he prays for protection. However, it is noted that an adequate, efficacious, and alternate remedy is available to the petitioner under Sections 22-A and 22-B of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

In view of the foregoing, the instant Constitutional petition, which seeks to invoke the jurisdiction of this Court directly without first approaching the appropriate statutory forum, is hereby dismissed. This approach is fully consistent with the law laid down by the Honourable Division Bench of the Sindh High Court in Abdul Hameed and another v. Province of Sindh and others, and is further in line with the decision of this Court, Circuit at Larkana in Manzoor Ali v. Province of Sindh and others, wherein similar issues were considered and the constitutional petitions were dismissed on the ground of availability of an efficacious statutory remedy.
