Crl. Misc. Application No.S-42 of 2026
(Nisar Ahmed Junejo Vs. Abdullah Janweri)

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE

01. For orders on office objection "A".
02. For orders on M.A.No.648/2026 (E/A).
03. For hearing of main case.

06.03.2026

Mr. Idrees Ahmed Mangi, Advocate for applicant/complainant.

.=..=..=..=..=..=..=

Heard learned counsel for the applicant and perused the material available on record.

The record reflects that the F.I.R. was registered on 26.02.2005. The role attributed to the respondent/accused is only to the extent of his alleged presence at the place of incident. No overt act has been attributed to him, nor has any specific injury been assigned to the respondent/accused. Whether the respondent/accused shared any common intention with the co-accused or is otherwise liable for the acts allegedly committed is a question which requires appreciation of evidence and is to be determined by the learned trial Court during the course of trial. The learned trial Court, while granting bail to the respondent/accused, has taken into consideration the relevant facts and circumstances of the case and has exercised its discretion in accordance with the settled principles governing the grant of bail. Learned counsel for the applicant/complainant has failed to point out any misreading or non-reading of material available on record, nor any misuse of the concession of bail, which may warrant interference by this Court.

It is a settled principle of law that cancellation of bail already granted requires strong and exceptional grounds, and unless the order granting bail is shown to be patently illegal, arbitrary, or based on misreading or non-reading of material evidence, the same should not ordinarily be disturbed. In the present case, learned counsel for the applicant/complainant has failed to demonstrate any ground as contemplated under Section 497(5), Cr.P.C. for cancellation of bail. Consequently, the instant Criminal Miscellaneous Application for cancellation of bail is dismissed in limine, along with the listed application.

Needless to observe that the observations made herein are tentative in nature and shall not influence the learned trial Court while deciding the case strictly in accordance with law.
