O R D E R.

Adnan-ul-Karim Memon J:- Petitioner Aashique Ali filed this constitutional petition under Article 199 of the Constitution seeking release of his pensionary benefits, including leave encashment, gratuity/commutation, monthly pension, and other outstanding dues.

The petitioner retired from service on attaining the age of superannuation in the year 2021; however, his pensionary benefits had not been released, prompting the filing of the petition.

Learned counsel for the respondents submitted a statement on behalf of Respondent No. 4 that only Rs. 485,481/- remained outstanding and would be paid in monthly instalments. The request seems to be reasonable and has been acceded to.

Accordingly, without touching the merits of the case and with the consent of the parties, the petition is disposed of with the direction that the outstanding amount be paid to the petitioner in three instalments and credited to his account positively, within the stipulated time.

In case of non-compliance, appropriate proceedings under Article 204 of the Constitution shall be initiated against the delinquent officials.
