Dated of hearing

& order: 17.06.2026

Syed Naimatullah Shah, advocate for the applicant

Mr. Ali Haider Saleem, Additional Prosecutor General

Ms. Humaira Qayoom, Senior Superintendent, Central Prison for Women

Complainant present in person

Omar Sial, J. This bail application seeking post-arrest was filed by Ms. Ramzana. She is accused of an offense under section 381, read with section 34 of the P.P.C. (F.I.R. No. 212 of 2026).

2. On 16.06.2026, the learned counsel appeared and stated that he would not press this application, as his client is not in custody. Being perturbed by such a situation, notice was issued to the Senior Superintendent of the Women's Prison. Today, i.e., 17.06.2026, Ms. Humaira Qayoom, the Senior Superintendent, was present and informed the Court that it was true that Ramzana had escaped. She, however, clarified that Ramzana escaped from the custody of the Court police and not the Prison. Apparently, Ramzana, who was taken for a Court hearing, in connivance with the security staff, had managed to escape. She remains an absconder. Ms. Qayoom further informed me that the requisite action against the delinquent officials had been initiated. She put on record certain documents to show the same.

3. Ramzana is accused of committing theft in Ms. Sabika Zaidi's house. Ms. Zaidi, a very dignified lady, was present in Court to hear the unfortunate developments. A disappointed Ms. Zaidi, however, complained that the Gulberg police station personnel had given her a very difficult time during this whole ordeal. Professionalism and respect, especially for a lady, were lacking.

4. The bail application is dismissed. Let a copy of this order be sent to the SSP within whose jurisdiction Gulberg police station is to ensure that complainants are treated professionally and with dignity by the personnel of the Gulberg police station.
