ORDER

Khalid Hussain Shahani-J.- Applicant Nazeer Ahmed seeks pre-arrest bail in a case bearing crime No.93 of 2026, registered at P.S. Badin, District Badin, for offences punishable under Sections 489-F and 420 of the Pakistan Penal Code, having been denied the same by the learned trial Court below.

2. Succinctly stated, the prosecutory narrative unfolds thus: the complainant, Harsim Raza, avers that the applicant/accused, Nazir Ahmed Halepoto, stood indebted to him in the sum of Rs.53,20,745/- on account of the sale of seed and diesel. Towards partial satisfaction of the said liability, the applicant tendered Cheque No.1700276056, dated 20-04-2026, for an amount of Rs. 50,00,000/-, which, upon presentation, was dishonoured owing to the dormancy of the drawee account. Notwithstanding repeated demands raised by the complainant, the outstanding sum remained unpaid, culminating in the registration of the instant FIR.

3. Arguments advanced by learned Counsel for the respective parties have been heard at length, and the material available on the record has been examined with due care.

4. Learned Counsel for the applicant contends that the alleged offence is compoundable in nature and that the parties, having buried their differences, have entered into a subsequent settlement, pursuant to which a sum of Rs.4,00,000/- has already been remitted to the complainant, leaving a balance of Rs.49,20,745/- still payable by the applicant. It is further submitted that the applicant undertakes to discharge Rs.9,20,745/- within a period of one month, and to honour the remaining liability through three postdated cheques, including Cheque No.CA62181047, dated 20.10.2026, for Rs.13,00,000/-; Cheque No.CA62181048, dated 20.10.2027, for Rs.20,00,000/-; and Cheque No.CA62181049, dated 15.03.2028, for Rs.7,00,000/-, all drawable upon Account No.20009867318 maintained with Soneri Bank, Talhar Branch, subject to the express caveat that dishonour of any of the said cheques shall entitle the complainant to pursue appropriate criminal and civil remedies against the applicant. The applicant, present in person before this Court, upon inquiry, affirms and endorses the contents of the compromise affidavit placed on record, duly executed under his signature.

5. Given that the parties have amicably resolved their dispute on the terms and conditions delineated above, and considering that the offence alleged is compoundable in nature, this Court is persuaded, prima facie, that the applicant has made out a case warranting further inquiry into his guilt, premised upon the compromise reflected through the subsequent issuance of cheque instruments in favour of the complainant. Accordingly, the instant application is allowed, and the interim pre-arrest bail earlier extended to the applicant vide order dated 09.06.2026 is hereby confirmed on the self-same terms and conditions.
