

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH, CIRCUIT COURT, MIRPURKHAS

Criminal Revision Application No. S-51 of 2025

Applicants: 1. Kirshan Singh S/o Jagat Singh,
2. Askan Singh S/o Chandan Singh,
3. Chigli alias Chago S/o Chain Singh,
Through Mr. Irfan Umrani, Advocate.

Respondent No.1: The State.
Through Mr. Neel Parkash, Deputy P.G.

Respondent No.2: Jalal S/o Ratno Meghwar,
Through Ms. Roopmala Singh, Advocate.

Date of hearing: 22.07.2026

Date of Order: 22.07.2026

ORDER

Khalid Hussain Shahani, J.- Through this order, I propose to conclusively dispose of the captioned Criminal Revision Application, which impugns the judgment dated 10.11.2025 rendered by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-I, Sanghar, in Criminal Appeal No.01/2024, arising out of Crime No.124/2023, registered for offences punishable under Sections 337-A(i), L(ii), 506(ii), 504 and 34 P.P.C., at Police Station Khipro.

2. During the pendency of the aforementioned Appeal, the contesting parties preferred applications under Sections 345(2) and 345(6) Cr.P.C., seeking permission of this Court to compound the offence and formal acceptance of the compromise arrived at between them. It is averred therein that the parties have amicably resolved their dispute outside the precincts of the Court, and that the complainant/injured has extended forgiveness to the applicants in the name of Almighty Allah, freely and voluntarily, without any element of coercion, duress, or undue influence. An affidavit sworn by the complainant/injured, affirming the veracity of these averments, has been annexed to the applications.

3. The complainant, appearing in person, categorically admits and reaffirms that a valid and binding compromise has been effected between the parties outside the court's precincts. He has, in unequivocal terms, prayed that he be permitted to compound the offence and that the applicants be acquitted of the charges levelled against them.

4. The learned Deputy Prosecutor General, upon due consideration, has raised no objection to the grant of the instant applications.

5. It stands undisputed and is amply borne out from the record that the parties have buried their differences and settled the matter amicably outside the court, a fact further fortified by the affidavit filed by the complainant, Jalal.

6. Given that the offence in question is compoundable in nature, and considering that no impediment or objection exists to the grant of compromise and consequent acquittal of the applicants, more so when the complainant has voluntarily relinquished his right of Daman in the name of Almighty Allah, this Court is persuaded that the ends of justice, coupled with the paramount consideration of restoring cordial relations and fostering lasting harmony between the parties, warrant the grant of permission to compound the offence under Section 345(2) Cr.P.C. Accordingly, the impugned judgment dated 10.11.2025 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-I, Sanghar, as well as the judgment dated 27.02.2024 rendered in Criminal Case No.121/2023, are hereby set aside. Consequently, applicants Kirshan Singh S/o Jagat Singh, Askan Singh S/o Chandan Singh, and Chigli alias Chago S/o Chain Singh stand acquitted under Section 345(6) Cr.P.C. of the charges framed against them. Applicants Kirshan Singh and Askan Singh, presently on bail, shall have their bail bonds cancelled and sureties discharged forthwith. Applicant Chigli alias Chago, presently in custody, shall be released forthwith, unless his continued detention is warranted in connection with any other case.

7. The instant Criminal Revision Application accordingly stands disposed of by way of compromise, with the parties' amicable resolution duly recorded and given effect to.

JUDGE

Faisal