Petitioner present in person.

Through instant Constitutional Petition, the petitioner seeks directions to the respondents to rectify the area of his landed property, as described in the petition, to separate his alleged share therein, and to make entries in the record-of-rights. The relief sought by the petitioner involves determination of disputed questions of fact relating to title, extent, and demarcation of the property, which necessarily require recording of evidence. Such factual controversies cannot be adjudicated by this Court in the exercise of its constitutional jurisdiction under Article 199 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973. The appropriate remedy available to the petitioner lies before the competent forum vested with jurisdiction under the relevant law, where the parties may lead evidence in support of their respective claims and the matter may be decided in accordance with law.

Under these circumstances, instant petition, being not maintainable, is hereby dismissed in limine, along with the listed applications leaving the petitioner at liberty to avail and exhaust the remedy available to him before the competent Court/forum having jurisdiction for redressal of his grievance, if so advised.
