17.08.2026

Mr.Fakhruddin Khoso, Advocate for the applicant

1. Granted.

2to5. During the course of arguments, learned counsel for the applicant submits that he does not press this Crl. Misc. Application, provided that there is some assurance that the concerned police officer does not arrest the proposed accused without the availability of evidence as to his culpability. The Criminal Procedure Code and Police Rules provide ample guidance to police officer with regard to conduct of recordal of statement and matters that arise therefrom. It is expected that the concerned police officer will act in a professional, competent and neutral manner and take the matter forward on its own merits acting in accordance with law.

Given the above observation, the Crl. Misc. Application stands dismissed as withdrawn.
