[Al Ameen Trading Corporation (Pvt) Ltd. V. D.S. Pakistan (Pvt.) Ltd. & others

Date of hearing: 30.04.2026.

Date of decision: 30.04.2026.

Petitioner: Through Mr. Muhammad Hanif Khetana, Advocate.

Respondents: Nemo.

ORDER

Muhammad Osman Ali Hadi, J: Learned counsel for the Petitioner submits that this winding up Petition was filed in the year 2017, and has remained in its ordinary course without conclusion. He states the matter has remained pending despite a lapse of over (9) nine years, for no apparent reason.

2. Learned counsel submits that the Respondent Company has failed to pay its debts, and has not been auditing its' account and has also failed to hold Annual General Meeting. Learned counsel contends that under Part-X of the Companies Act 2017, in particular with reference to sections 301-304, the Respondent Company is liable to be wound up as it has inter alia defaulted on several of its statutory obligations and is no longer conducting any business.

3. The said Company is officially defunct, and is no longer trading on the PSX, nor does it remain in existence (at least for any practical purposes). Furthermore, it appears that the Respondent Company has remained unable to fulfil statutory requirements for the past several years, in addition to no longer to be a functional unit. No valid rationale appears in keeping the Company alive on paper.

4. Notices were issued and publication was made in one daily Urdu 'Jang' and one daily English 'The News' newspapers, both of which were published on 03.04.2026.

5. To date, none has appeared on behalf of the Respondents to pursue any objection regarding the said winding up. As per comments filed by the SECP, they have confirmed that the Respondent No.1 has obtained loan facility from the Banks.

6. In view of hereof, there remains no impediment for granting of the instant Petition. Consequently, the Respondent No.1 Company is ordered to be wound-up and all consequent applicable legal and codal formalities are to be followed. Accordingly, the instant Petition is allowed.

7. Furthermore, the Petitioner prays to appoint the Official Assignee as the Official Liquidator. Order accordingly.

Petition Allowed.
