1. Urgency granted.
2. Exempted subject to all just exceptions.
- 3&4. The claim of petitioner is that he retired from service in the year 2025; however, the respondents are exerting pressure upon him to vacate the official accommodation. He further submits that although he retired on 23.07.2025, his pensionary benefits have not yet been released and until such benefits are paid, he may not be evicted from the official accommodation.

The issue raised by the petitioner, however, neither forms part and parcel of his terms and conditions of service nor arises out of any contract governing the allotment or occupation of the official accommodation. Therefore, the instant petition, being misconceived and devoid of merit, is not maintainable and is accordingly dismissed, with no order as to costs.

As regards the grievance relating to the non-payment of pensionary benefits, the petitioner may approach the competent department/authority for redressal of the same and may file a fresh petition in accordance with law, if so advised.

Head of Const. Benches
