1. Urgency granted.
2. Deferred for the time being.
3. Exempted subject to all just exceptions.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has approached the police hierarchy against the alleged harassment and illegal actions on the part of respondent No.7, namely Inspector Sohail, who is stated to be the Investigating Officer of Crime No.792/2026, registered at Police Station Surjani Town, Karachi. It is alleged that respondent No.7 demanded an amount of Rs.500,000/- from the petitioner, which, being a helpless lady, she is unable to pay, and that, thereafter, he has allegedly been continuously conducting raids at her house. Learned counsel has drawn the attention of the Court to the application submitted by the petitioner before the police hierarchy seeking transfer of the investigation.

As regards the grievance relating to the transfer of investigation, under Section 18(4) of the Police Order, 2002, the petitioner is required to approach the concerned Deputy Inspector General of Police by filing an appropriate application seeking transfer of the investigation. In case the concerned DIG fails to constitute the committee in terms of Section 18 of the Police Order, 2002, the petitioner shall be at liberty to avail the remedy available to her before the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace in accordance with law.

So far as the grievance of harassment is concerned, the instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent Nos.1 to 8 not to harass, intimidate or cause any unlawful interference with the petitioner or her family members and to provide them protection in accordance with law, as and when required. Respondent Nos.1 to 6 are further directed to keep a vigilant watch over the conduct of respondent Nos.7 to 10 so that no unlawful or untoward incident or law-and-order situation is created. Let a copy of this order be facsimiled to respondent Nos.1 to 6 for information and strict compliance.

At this juncture, M/s Muhammad Kamran Baloch and Muhammad Iqbal Awan, learned A.A.G.Sindh and learned Addl: Prosecutor General Sindh, who are present in Court in connection with other matters, waive notice and submit that the official respondents shall conduct themselves strictly in accordance with law and shall not cause any harassment or unlawful interference to the petitioner or her family members. Let a copy of this order be facsimiled to respondents for compliance. Learned MIT-II to ensure compliance.
