The comments/written reply have been filed on behalf of respondent No.4, i.e. SIBA Testing Services, Sukkur, which are taken on record.

The representative of respondent No.4 submits that initially the Answer Key was uploaded wherein the answer to Question No.76 was inadvertently declared as option (a). Subsequently, on the complaint made by one of the candidates, the matter was reconsidered and, after obtaining expert opinion, it was found that the correct answer to Question No.76 was option (b) instead of option (a). Accordingly, the Answer Key was rectified and uploaded, and thereafter the Final Result was issued. It is further submitted that the earlier Answer Key was provisional and, upon such rectification, the marks of the petitioner were reduced from 55 to 54.

We have observed that the petitioner has concealed the aforesaid material facts regarding the subsequent review and rectification of the Answer Key.

In view of the above factual controversy, coupled with the concealment of material facts by the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to entertain the instant petition in its constitutional jurisdiction. The petition, being misconceived and not maintainable, is accordingly dismissed.
