- 3. For orders on M.A No.3907/2026.

23.09.2026

Mr. Shakeel Ahmed G. Ansari, Advocate for the Petitioner.

-x-x-x-x-x-

- 1. Urgency granted.
- 2-4. It is inter alia contended by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there is a dispute between two private parties and, due to such dispute, there is a strong apprehension of breach of peace and law and order situation in the village of the petitioner. He submits that the petitioner and his family members apprehend threat at the hands of the private respondent and, in order to avoid any untoward incident and to maintain peace and tranquility in the area, a police picket may be deployed at the village by directing the official respondents to provide necessary protection to the petitioner and his family members.

Mr. Mohsin Ali Khan, learned Assistant Advocate General, Sindh, who is present in Court in other cases, waives notice and submits that the petitioner has already availed the remedy under Section 22-A & B Cr.P.C. before the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace/District & Sessions Judge, Larkana, and the matter has already been considered by the learned Court, therefore, the petitioner has approached this Court without any justification for seeking the same relief.

We have perused the record. Initially, the petitioner filed an application under Section 22-A & B Cr.P.C. before the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace/District & Sessions Judge, Larkana, wherein he sought protection and the same was considered vide order dated 11.08.2026. In spite of having availed such remedy, he has approached this Court without any justification. Therefore, the instant petition, being misconceived, is dismissed in limine.

However, the police hierarchy is under an obligation to discharge its duties strictly in accordance with law and to provide legal protection to all citizens of the vicinity, including the petitioner, in case of any genuine threat to their life and liberty.
