O R D E R

NISAR AHMED BHANBHRO, J: Through the instant bail application, applicants Mukesh, Lajpat & Ramesh seek pre-arrest bail under Section 498 Cr.P.C in F.I.R bearing Crime No.109 of 2026, registered at Police Station Khahi for offences punishable under Sections 380, 457, 34 PPC. Their similar request was declined by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Khipro vide order dated 12.10.2026.

2. The facts of the case are mentioned in the FIR and needs no repetition in compliance of Hon'ble Apex Court judgment in PLD 2014 SC 458.

3. Learned counsel for the applicants contended that the applicants are innocents and have been falsely implicated in the instant case with mala fide intention and ulterior motives. He further contended that this is case of hearsay, complainant is not eye witness of the case and hearsay evidence is weak type of evidence and same needs to be case of further inquiry. He further contended that there is delay of 03 days without any plausible explanation. He prayed for the grant of bail to the applicants.

4. When confronted, learned D.P.G for the state frankly conceded for confirmation of bail and submitted that recovery has already been affected and applicants are no more required for further investigation. The complainant is present and submits that he is facing threats at the hands of the accused persons.

The applicants are directed to remain careful in future. If they misuse concession of bail, the learned Trial Court shall dealt them in accordance with law. Since the incident is unseen and alleged recovery has also been affected and applicants are no more required for further investigation. Accordingly, the interim pre-arrest bail granted to the applicants vide order dated 14.10.2026 is hereby confirmed on the same terms and conditions. The learned trial Court is directed to expeditiously conclude the trial within shortest reasonable time.

5. Needless to observe that the findings and observations recorded herein are purely tentative in nature and confined to the disposal of the instant bail application. The learned trial Court shall decide the case strictly on the basis of the evidence brought before it, independently and without being influenced by any observation contained in this order.

6. The instant Criminal Bail Application stands disposed of.
