O R D E R

NISAR AHMED BHANBHRO, J: Through the instant bail application, applicant Samiullah son of Sadiq alias Dilshad seeks post-arrest bail under Section 497 Cr.P.C in F.I.R bearing Crime No.86 of 2026, registered at police station Jhol for offences punishable under Sections 324, 506(2), 337-H(ii), 34 PPC. His earlier application for post arrest bail was dismissed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-I, Sanghar, vide order dated 12.10.2026 in Criminal Bail Application No.404 of 2026, whereafter he invoked the jurisdiction of this Court.

2. The facts of the case are mentioned in the FIR and needs no repetition in compliance of Hon'ble Apex Court judgment in PLD 2014 SC 458.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant contended that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He contended that the role attributed to the applicant in the FIR is distinguishable from the principal role alleged against co-accused, Muhammad Arif, who is stated to have caused the actual firearm injury to the injured, Noor Hassan. So far as the present applicant is concerned, the alleged firing attributed to him missed and no injury was caused by the applicant to anyone. Therefore, the case requires further inquiry within the meaning of Section 497(2) Cr.P.C. He prayed for the grant of bail to the applicant/accused; however, learned D.P.G. opposed the grant of bail to the applicant/accused.

4. Heard arguments and perused the material available on record. As per the FIR, applicant fired upon the complainant party, but the same did not hit any person. Moreover, the applicant was found innocent during the investigation and his name was placed in Column-II of the challan. Learned D.P.G. concedes this factual position and concedes for the grant of bail. Consequently, applicant Samiullah son of Sadiq is admitted to post-arrest bail, subject to his furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs. 30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand), together with a personal recognizance bond in the like amount, to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court.

5. Needless to observe that the findings and observations recorded herein are purely tentative in nature and confined to the disposal of the instant bail application. The learned trial Court shall decide the case strictly on the basis of the evidence brought before it, independently and without being influenced by any observation contained in this order.

6. The instant Bail Application stands disposed of
