ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J:- Through this petition filed under Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973 the petitioners seeks directions for official respondents for providing them legal protection.

2. Counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner had purchased the property from private respondent through agreement under certain terms and conditions, however, the private respondent violated the said terms and conditions, which compelled the petitioner to institute a civil suit before the competent Court. He alleges that on account of filing said suit the private respondent is causing undue harassment to the petitioner while official respondent are not provided him legal protection.

3. Despite notice, no one effected appearance on behalf of the private respondent; whereas learned Additional A.G Sindh submits that official respondents will act strictly in accordance with law and will also provide legal protection to the petitioner as and when warranted under the law. Counsel for the petitioner expressed satisfaction and seeks disposal of the petition in terms of the statement of learned Additional A.G Sindh.

4. In view of the above, the instant petition is disposed of with directions to respondent police authorities to act strictly in accordance with law and provide legal protection to the petitioner as and when warranted under the law. The SHO of P.S concerned is directed to take action in accordance with law, in case any individual tries to take the law in his hands.
