24.08.2026

Mr. Abdul Latif advocate holds brief for Mr. Madan Lal, advocate for the applicant

Mr. Aamir Raza, advocate for respondent

This matter is pending since 2016 without any progress. On 19.09.2016, following order was passed :

“Counsel for the applicant requests for short adjournment to re-formulate the questions which may be arising from the impugned order dated 08.03.2013. Two weeks' time is allowed to do the needful, subject to all just exceptions.

It may be clarified that questions of law must be proposed in such a manner that they should give rise to some legal controversy which may arise from the impugned order passed by the Appellate Tribunal whereas response to such questions may be given either in affirmative or negative and decision whereof may settle some legal controversy or principle relating to the Customs Act, 1969. No complex or compound questions of law may be formulated for the opinion of this Court under section 196 of the Customs Act, 1969.

To come up on 25.10.2016.”

Matter has not been proceeded since that time and even today brief is being held and adjournment sought. No case is made out to perpetuate this matter in the docket, hence, dismissed for non-prosecution.

A copy of this decision may also be sent under the seal of this Court and signature of the Registrar to the learned Customs Appellate Tribunal, as required per section 196(10) of the Customs Act, 1969.
