ORDER

Adnan-ul-Karim Memon, J. The Petitioners, Asmatullah Khan and Ghuncha Bibi, have invoked the constitutional jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution, seeking restoration/unblocking of their CNICs, which were blocked by Respondent No.2-NADRA.

2. Learned counsel for NADRA submitted that the Petitioners’ CNICs were digitally impounded as their family was matched with IFRP pursuant to letter dated 20.02.2026, and that they had not appeared before the Verification Board. He stated that the Petitioners may approach the concerned NADRA Zonal Office with original documents prior to 1979 and one Alpha family member for evaluation under the Revised Verification and Revocation Policy 5.0.0.
3. The Petitioners’ counsel agreed to comply with the said requirement.
4. Accordingly, with consent of the parties, and without touching the merits of the case, the petition and pending application are disposed of with a direction to NADRA that, if the Petitioners’ case is found genuine, the matter shall be proceeded with and the exercise completed within two weeks.
