ORDER

Jan Ali Junejo, J.- Through this Criminal Bail Application, Applicant-Sajjad son of Ayoub, seeks post-arrest bail in connection with Crime No.185 of 2025, registered at Police Station Saudabad, Karachi, for offences punishable under Sections 397 and 34, PPC. Earlier, the Applicant's post-arrest bail application was declined by the learned IV-Additional Sessions Judge, Karachi East, vide Order dated 11.06.2026.

2. The brief facts of the prosecution case, as set out in the FIR, are that on 12.06.2025 at about 1830 hours, the Complainant, who is employed at a private Company at Port Qasim, was proceeding from his house towards Malir Halt. Upon reaching the Service Road near Railway Wala, Main Site, Karachi, two unknown persons riding a 125cc motorcycle approached him from behind and, while threatening him with a weapon, forcibly snatched his mobile phone, namely, Redmi Note 13 Pro, black in colour, bearing IMEI Nos.863276074974462 and 863276074974470, containing SIM No.0333-3552935, and fled from the spot. The Complainant thereafter approached the police and lodged the present FIR against the unknown culprits, seeking legal action.

3. Learned Counsel for the Applicant contends that the Applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He submits that the FIR was registered against unknown persons and the Applicant was neither nominated therein nor assigned any specific role. It is further contended that no incriminating article, including the allegedly snatched mobile phone or any weapon, was recovered from the possession of the Applicant and, significantly, no identification parade was conducted by the prosecution. On these grounds, learned Counsel submits that the Applicant's case squarely falls within the ambit of further inquiry as contemplated under Section 497(2), Cr.P.C.

4. Conversely, learned Assistant Prosecutor General, Sindh has opposed the grant of bail, contending that the offence is serious and heinous in nature and that the Applicant was subsequently arrested in another case. According to the learned APG, the allegation relates to an armed robbery and, therefore, the Applicant does not deserve the concession of bail.

5. I have heard the learned Counsel for the parties and have gone through the available record with their assistance. At the stage of bail, the Court is not required to conduct a deeper appreciation of the evidence or record a final determination regarding the guilt or innocence of the accused. The question is whether, on the tentative assessment of the material available on record, reasonable grounds exist for believing that the accused is connected with the commission of the offence, or whether the case requires further inquiry within the meaning of Section 497(2), Cr.P.C.

6. In the present case, it is an admitted position emerging from the record that the Applicant was not nominated in the FIR. The occurrence was allegedly committed by two unknown persons, but no subsequent identification parade of the applicant has been conducted. Likewise, no recovery of the allegedly snatched mobile phone, weapon, or any other incriminating article has been effected from the Applicant.

7. The mere fact that the Applicant was arrested subsequently in another case, by itself, cannot constitute sufficient incriminating material in the present case so as to dispense with the requirement of connecting him with the alleged occurrence. At this stage, the Court cannot treat his involvement in another case as substantive evidence of his participation in the present crime. The prosecution is required to establish an independent nexus between the Applicant and the offence forming the subject matter of the present FIR.

8. In the circumstances noted above, particularly the Applicant's non-nomination in the FIR, absence of any recovery from his possession and non-conduct of an identification parade, the material presently available on record does not, at this tentative stage, provide sufficient grounds to hold that the applicant is prima facie connected with the alleged occurrence. His case, therefore, calls for further inquiry within the meaning of Section 497(2), Cr.P.C.

9. It is clarified that the observations made herein are tentative in nature and shall have no bearing upon the merits of the case at trial, where the prosecution shall be at liberty to establish its case in accordance with law.

10. Consequently, this bail application is allowed. Applicant-Sajjad son of Ayoub is admitted to post-arrest bail subject to furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) with PR bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court.
