THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH KARACHI

SCRA No. 597 of 2024

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE(S)

1. For hearing of main case.
2. For hearing of CMA No. 2814 of 2024.

04-11-2026

Mr. Khalid Mahmood Rajpar, advocate for the applicant.
Mr. Agha Abdul Haq, advocate holds brief for Mr. Shoukat Hayat, advocate for the respondent.

While numerous questions of law have been proposed for determination, learned counsel states that the impugned judgment has been rendered without any independent discussion deliberation and/or reasoning and cannot be considered a speaking order. Learned counsel states that the Appellate Tribunal has rendered the judgment in a perfunctory manner and the same is not befitting the last fact finding forum in the statutory hierarchy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, learned counsel for the applicant also demonstrates that the impugned judgment has been authored by a learned Single Member Bench in prima facie violation of the statutory pecuniary jurisdiction.

The Appellate Tribunal is the last fact-finding forum in the statutory hierarchy; therefore, it is incumbent upon it to render independent deliberations and findings on each issue. The manner in which the appeals in general are to be addressed has been emphasized by the Supreme Court in the judgment reported as 2019 SCMR 1726. This High Court has consistently maintained that the Appellate Tribunal is required to proffer independent reasons and findings, and in the absence thereof a perfunctory order could not be sustained. Reliance is placed on the judgment dated 02.10.2024 in SCRA 1113 of 2023 and judgment dated 27.08.2024 in SCRA 757 of 2015. Earlier Division Bench judgments have also maintained that if the impugned order is discrepant in the manner as aforesaid, the correct course is to remand the matter for adjudication afresh. Reliance is placed on the judgment dated 10.12.2024 in ITRA 343 of 2024.

We are of the considered view that the impugned judgment could not be considered to be a speaking order and is prima facie devoid of any independent reasoning etc. The entire judgment comprises essentially of reproduction and is crowned with a dissonant conclusion. Hence, no case is set forth to sustain the impugned judgment, which is hereby set aside and the matter is remanded back to the Appellate Tribunal for adjudication afresh in accordance with law.

A copy of this decision may also be sent under the seal of this Court and signature of the Registrar to the learned Customs Appellate Tribunal, as required per section 196(10) of the Customs Act, 1969.
