MUHAMMAD IQBAL KALHORO J: Applicant was arrested by a police team of P.S. Ferozabad headed by SIP Asim Hussain on 23.05.2026 on spy information, from Shahrah-e-Qaideen near Tooba Store, Allah Wali Chowrangi, Karachi and from him allegedly 37.8 Kilograms of Bhang was recovered, hence he was booked in FIR No.540/2026 U/s 9(1) (d), CNS Act 2022 of P.S. Ferozabad, Karachi.

2. Learned counsel for applicant has pleaded for bail on medical ground that the applicant is suffering from H. Pylori, treatment of which is not available in the jail.

3. On the other hand, learned D.P.G. has opposed bail citing that already bail application (Cr.Bail Appl. No.1863/2026) of the applicant was dismissed by this court vide order dated 18.08.2026 directing the trial court to examine the witnesses in three months.

4. We have heard the parties. There is nothing on record to show that applicant has been examined by any Medical Board and properly tested to determine that he is suffering from H. Pylori. Even if he is assumed to be suffering from such disease, there is nothing on record that the treatment of which is not available in the jail and that the said disease is detrimental to his health. The offence, the applicant is alleged to have committed carries life imprisonment and falls within prohibitory clause u/s 497 Cr.P.C, hence he is not entitled to concession of bail. According, this bail application is dismissed.

The observations made hereinabove are tentative in nature and would not prejudice case of either party at trial.

The Cr. Bail Applications are disposed of.
