O R D E R

***

ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J:- The petitioner challenged the non-appointment to the post of Associate Professor advertised on 24.05.2017, claiming eligibility on the basis of his PhD in Analytical Chemistry.

The learned counsel for the respondents contended that his research articles were published in journals not recognized by HEC and the competent authority's report was adverse.

As the petitioner remained absent, the petition is dismissed in default along with pending applications.
