O R D E R

Khalid Hussain Shahani, J:- The applicants Kareem Dad, Shahmir, and Raheem Dad, having suffered dismissal of their pre-arrest bail application No. 805/2026 by order dated 23.06.2026 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-I/M.C.T.C., Sanghar, arising out of F.I.R. bearing Crime No. 32 of 2026, registered under Sections 324, 337-A(i), 337-F(i), 147, 148, 149 and 504, P.P.C. at Police Station Chotiariyoon, have invoked the jurisdiction of this Court through the instant bail application.

2. The narrative set out in the F.I.R., lodged by the complainant Manzoor Ali on 10.06.2026 at 2230 hours at Police Station Chotiariyoon, discloses that following the demise of the complainant's father about a year prior, certain agricultural implements belonging to the deceased remained in the custody of his cousin, Kareem Dad. Despite repeated demands for restitution of the said articles, Kareem Dad persistently declined to relinquish them. It is alleged that on 08.06.2026, at 1630 hours, while the complainant, his wife Mst. Khairan, his mother Mst. Razia, and his brother Muhammad Bachal were present near their residence, the accused Kareem Dad, armed with a hatchet, Shahmir, armed with a pistol, and Raheem Dad, Shahid and Ghulam Shabbir, armed respectively with lathies and a hatchet, arrived at the scene, hurled abusive language, whereupon Raheem Dad is alleged to have inflicted a lathi blow upon the complainant's head and back. It is further alleged that when Mst. Khairan intervened to protect her husband, Kareem Dad struck her with the hatchet above her right eye with the ostensible intention to cause her death, resulting in her collapse. Thereafter, the remaining accused are alleged to have assaulted the complainant party with pistol butts and lathies upon the head, back, and other parts of the body. The commotion is stated to have attracted the complainant's father-in-law, Muhammad Bux, along with other villagers, upon whose arrival the accused fled the scene along with their weapons. It is in this factual matrix that the instant bail application has been preferred.

3. Learned counsel for the applicants submits with conviction that the offences alleged are compoundable in nature and that the parties, through the benevolent intervention of respectable elders of the locality, have amicably resolved their differences. On this premise, he prays for confirmation of the interim pre-arrest bail already extended to the applicants.

4. In substantiation of this submission, the complainant Manzoor Ali, together with the injured persons Mst. Khairan wife of Manzoor Ali, Muhammad Bachal son of Huzoori, and Mst. Razia wife of Huzoori, have appeared before this Court in person and tendered their respective affidavits, unequivocally recording their lack of objection to the confirmation of bail. They aver that, through the mediation of nek mards of the locality, an amicable settlement has been reached, and that they have, in the name of Almighty Allah, extended forgiveness to the applicants.

5. Learned Deputy Prosecutor General, upon due consideration of the aforesaid circumstances, has likewise recorded no objection to the confirmation of bail.

6. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record with due care.

7. It is manifest from the record that all the sections invoked in the F.I.R. are compoundable as per schedule II of Cr.P.C. The parties, as evidenced by the affidavits placed on record, have arrived at an amicable compromise, and the complainant along with all the injured persons have unequivocally forgone any objection to the confirmation of bail. Learned counsel for the applicants has further undertaken to move the appropriate compromise application before the learned trial court. In view of the foregoing circumstances, this Court is satisfied that the applicants have, prima facie, made out a compelling case for confirmation of bail on the strength of the compromise so effected. Accordingly, the interim pre-arrest bail granted to the applicants vide order dated 30.06.2026 is hereby confirmed on the same terms and conditions as originally imposed.

The instant Bail Application stands disposed of accordingly.
