- 1. Urgency granted.
- 2. Deferred.
- 3. Exemption granted subject to all just legal exceptions.
- 4. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Banking Court-II, Larkana Division at Larkana, in Suit No.73 of 2021, passed judgment dated 26.08.2021 against the present petitioner, who was arrayed as defendant. It is contended that the said judgment was passed ex parte and that the petitioner had no knowledge thereof. However, despite the same, the learned Banking Court has issued warrants of arrest against the petitioner, giving rise to a genuine apprehension of his arrest. Learned counsel, therefore, prays for suspension of the operation of the impugned warrants of arrest to enable the petitioner to appear before the Banking Court-II, Larkana, and avail the appropriate remedy available to him under the law, as, owing to the apprehension of arrest, he is unable to approach the said Court.

Mr. Riaz Hussain Khoso, Learned Deputy Attorney General, waives notice and submits that he has no objection to the extent that the petitioner may approach the concerned Court and avail the remedy available to him in accordance with law.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, and as the petitioner intends to approach the concerned Court, but is presently hindered by the warrants of arrest issued against him, the operation of the warrants of arrest issued by the Banking Court-II, Larkana, in Suit No.73 of 2021, whereby the petitioner was arrayed as defendant, is hereby suspended for a period of seven (07) days, subject to the petitioner surrendering before the said Court within the aforesaid period and availing the remedy available to him in accordance with law.

The instant petition is accordingly disposed of in the above terms.
