

ORDER SHEET

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH, CIRCUIT COURT, HYDERABAD.

C.P. No. D – 1628 of 2017.

---

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE
------	-------------------------------

---

14.06.2017.

FOR ORDERS ON M.A. 7795/2017.

Mr. Omparkash H. Karmani, Advocate for the petitioner.

While confronted as to maintainability of instant petition learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner would be satisfied if permission is granted to the petitioner to approach the competent court of civil jurisdiction and to seek his remedy in accordance with law.

It may be observed that no permission is required from this Court to an aggrieved party to approach the appropriate forum or authority having jurisdiction for redressal of his grievance.

The instant petition appears to be misconceived and does not fall within the purview of Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973.

Accordingly, instant petition being misconceived is dismissed as being not maintainable along with the listed application. However, the petitioner would be at liberty to approach the competent civil court for redressal of his grievances in accordance with law.
